Delhi's Saratoga Derby.

Delhi was an odds-on favorite, of course. Of the Thomas pair, St. Vaientine was favorite for the place, because Hildebrand had the mount, while Jack Martin rode Stalwart. Of course those in the know bet on Stalwart for a place and he cashed for them. He took second place at the end of a mile and forced Delhi to a drive at the end to win by a length and a half. St. Valentine was third, a length and a half away.

sary for Odom to wave his whip at him sail the way home. He won by a length and a half from Stalwart, who ran a good race at the distance.

The race fr gentlemen riders was interesting because Belmont's son. Raymond, had a mount on Sydney Paget's Boxwood. Mr. eBimont was unfortunate enough to get away badly and his mount was never a factor. Dapple Gold, ridden by Mr. Holland, won cleverly. About 15,000 people saw the races run. The weather was fine and track fast.

Humo was a red hot favorite in the opening event, going to the post at odds in and was backed for thousands, Scarfell was the second choice. Humo was off badly and never had a bit of speed. Atwood broke in front and flattered his backers to the far turn, followed by Scarfell and Gay Boy. Atwood blew up at this point, and Scarfell took the lead and showed the way to the stretch, followed by Gay Boy. In the run home Scarfell held his own and won by a length. It was a red-hot drive between Gay Boy and New York, the former gutting the decision by a nose.

The steeplechase Close Race.

The steeplechase was an awful drive

The steeplechase was an awful drive from start to finish. Flying Virginian set a hot pace until he bolted. Then Grandpa and Fox Hunter raced in close order to the far turn, where St. Jude placed, and they drove in close order to the stretch, where Fox Hunter drew away. After getting over the last hurdle the leaders were very tired, and they crawled the last furlong. Fox Hunter winning by a scant length from St. Jude, who was two lengths in front of Grandpa. Claim of foul was made against the winner for crossing at the head of the stretch. It was not allowed.

This race was chiefly interesting because August Belmont's son, Raymond, had a mount in the race. He was on Sydney Paget's Boxwood. It was his first mount and he was unfortunate enough to get away badly. Unmasked made the running, followed by St. Daniel and Dapple Gold, and they held this order to the stretch. Togo's Fleet Believed to Have Been So Badly Crippled that It Could Not Pursue the Russians-Cruiser Novik Has Again Escaped.

ST.
